Rottweil Special 12 F

The Rottweil Special 12 F offers the avid small game hunter a well-balanced shotshell at an excellent price/performance ratio. In case of this shotshell, RWS is offering a very big variety of different shot pellet sizes. Here, the focus has been on the finer shot. The environmentally friendly fibre wad in combination with the H-wad achieves a widespread and uniform patterning.

Rottweil Special 12 F at a glance:

- small game hunter
- a well-balanced shotshell
- very big variety of different shot pellet sizes
- environmentally friendly fibre wad
- uniform patterning
- green PE plastic case
- higher hit rate with small game
- calibre 12/67,5

Shotgun shell construction of Rottweil Special 12 F

1. Green PE plastic case
2. Higher hit rate with small game: lead shot in small diameters
3. Higher environmental friendliness due to biodegradable fibre wad
4. The H-wad optimally seals off the powder chamber
5. Protection of the barrel due to non-corrosive SINOXID® ignition
6. Inexpensive low brass head
