Rottweil Brenneke Classic

This classic hunting cartridge contains the classic slug with felt wad. The influences of the chokebore on the precision of this cartridge are insignificant. As a result, it can be fired in all common shotguns. For decades, this cartridge has been available in the three most important gauges. Both in the case length of 67.5 mm (also usable in shotguns with 65 mm chamber) and the case length of 70 mm. The cartridge can be safely used up to 50 m.
