Rottweil Semi Magnum

This special Rottweil semi-magnum load was developed to offer hunters, who have standard-proofed shotguns with a 70 mm chamber, a higher shot load. The interior ballistics is specially tuned for these conditions.

Rottweil Semi Magnum at a glance:

- special cartridge for hunters
- standard proofed shotguns
- 70 mm chamber
- higher shot load
- interior ballistics
- Excellent patterning even at longer range due to highest possible 40.0 g lead shot load
- Compact shot cone even at longer range due to the sturdy cup wad
- Protection of the barrel due to non-corrosive SINOXID® ignition

Shotgun shell construction of Rottweil Semi Magnum

1. The black PE plastic case is highly resistant to moisture
2. Excellent patterning even at longer range due to highest possible 40.0 g lead shot load
3. Compact shot cone even at longer range due to the sturdy cup wad
4. Approved for shotguns that take standard cartridges, as the permitted gas pressure of 740 bar is not exceeded
5. Protection of the barrel due to non-corrosive SINOXID® ignition
6. Extra high quality 20 mm brass head
